We Want Everything in Eaves' New Spring Collection

The lookbook is positively lust-worthy.

Local boutiques are rolling out new spring arrivals and we're opening them with open arms. However, nothing has us quite as excited as Eaves' spring lookbook. Filled with crisp whites, quilted lightweight jackets and all types of linen, it's basically spring perfection. All the looks are styled in a way that's so accessible, you'll be picking out whole outfits to recreate (that metallic tank and linen pant combo is just divine). Only 21 days until spring!

To see the collection in all its glory, click here. Then go visit the shop because we know you already started a wish list. Plus, we called to check; all the styles are available in-store now.
