

Shoppist

Warning: This Fall Lookbook Will Make You Want To Go Shopping

Eaves boutique in Wayne lets us in on what they've bought for fall.

BY EMILY GOULET | SEPTEMBER 11, 2014 AT 6:11 PM

At Eaves, fall is all about sexy, boyish luxury. | Eaves

Drop what you're doing right now and take a peek at this lookbook. It's by Eaves in Wayne, which, if you ask me, is one of the top shops in our area. You should visit if you haven't already (and you should also make a point to stop by their mini-boutique at Philly Mag Shops; last year they brought an amazing selection).

Don't believe me? One look at the pieces they've curated for fall—boyish coats, a ridic pair of Rag & Bone sneakers, fall-perfect hand-knit sweaters, jackets made of cozy down and distressed denim, button-downs that look as if they've been lived in for years (in the best way), touches of shearling and patchwork and tweed—and you'll be sold. Or, at the very least, itching to buy.