

Shoppist

Behind the Buy: What Eaves Is Loving For Fall

A peek at what Philly's top boutiques are showing this season.

BY EMILY GOULET | SEPTEMBER 10, 2015 AT 12:20 PM

EAVES

Welcome, officially and finally, to fall! While you've been Shore-ing, sunning and stealing every last bit of summer before it winds away, we've been digging head-first into the new season's style offerings. And let me tell you: They are good. We asked Philly's top shops to give us a peek at their fall buys. Every day, we'll be breaking down the the styles they're loving, the trends they're featuring, and the pieces to add to your new-season shopping list. Happy shopping!

The Store: Eaves, Wayne

The Look: IRO

The Trends: Tailored sportswear inspired by the '70s, pop colors, textured knits, après ski, fur and winter whites.

Label to Watch: "Two of our brands are being helmed by new creative directors: Carven with Adrien Caillaud and Alexis Martial, and Helmut Lang with Katayone Adeli. We're always excited to see what kind of energy change can bring to a design house."

Best Buy: Mr. and Mrs. neon-fur-lined military parka ($2,995).