Remember when I gave you a peek at what our top local boutiques are getting in for fall? Well, one of them — Eaves in Wayne — is giving shoppers an even better look into the styles and items that are shaping its fall aesthetic.

The clothes are elevated classics: You'll see a filmy balloon-sleeved top, but with slinky, exaggerated ties at the cuffs; a simple leather miniskirt is accented with a band of fringe; a leather tunic is cinched with a sculptured obi-like belt. It's all delicious, and you need to take a peek, and then go shop it immediately. Just saying.
